

In the Event of a Major Disaster Confirmation of Safety from Okayama University

In the event of a major disaster, your safety will be confirmed using the ANPIC safety confirmation system. When you receive a safety confirmation message, please follow the steps below to respond to the safety status.

1. Sending safety confirmation messages (from ANPIC→to all students)

In addition to the Gmail address (.....@s.okayama-u.ac.jp) provided by Okayama university, if you have already registered with ANPIC, the safety confirmation messages will be sent to your registered email address, ANPIC official application and ANPIC official LINE.

Attention Please make it a habit to check your Okayama university Gmail address on a regular basis.

2. Response of safety status (from all students→to ANPIC)

Mail and Apps: After receiving a safety confirmation message, tap the URL in the message.

LINE: Tap the Safety report button.

Answer the questions and tap [Safety report] to complete the report.

The screenshot shows the ANPIC safety report form with the following fields and options:

- Language:  日本語  Other language
- Name (氏名): 安否太郎
- Personal Safety Status (本人の安否 必須):  無事  軽傷  重傷  コメント欄へ
- Current Location (所在地 必須):  自宅  学内

A callout box points to the "Other language" option, stating: "[Other language]を選択すると英語表記に切り替えることができます"
